Dear Sir

We refer to your appointment on behalf of Owners in this reference.

Owners appointed you as their arbitrator on 1 July 2014. Notice of your appointment was given to the Charterers on the same day, and Charterers were invited to agree to your appointment as sole arbitrator, or appoint their own arbitrator within 14 days of that date i.e. 15 July 2014. Charterers failed to do so.

Accordingly, on 16 July 2014, Owners wrote to Charterers in accordance with section 17(1) of the Arbitration Act 1996, notifying Charterers that unless they appointed their own arbitrator within 7 clear days of that date i.e. within Monday 28 July 2014, you would be appointed as sole arbitrator in this reference, without further notice.

Having received no response to that message, we can confirm that you shall act as sole arbitrator in this reference. We have copied Charterers into this message.

All relevant correspondence is attached.
